

St Mary's Church, Walkley

The Church on the Road:
Inclusive, Eucharistic, a safe place to be with God

Remembrance Sunday

12th November 2023

Welcome to St Mary's Church, Walkley

We welcome our friends from Walkley Ebenezer Methodist Church and Loxley Silver Band.

Officiant: Kath, Reader at St Mary's
Reflection: Louise, Methodist Lay Preacher
Churchwarden on duty: Janet

The Opening Hymn

We stand and we sing:

St Anne

Our God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast,
and our eternal home.

Beneath the shadow of thy throne,
thy saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is thine arm alone,
and our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
or earth received her frame,
from everlasting thou art God,
to endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight
are like an evening gone;
short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
will bear us all away;
we fade and vanish, as a dream
dies at the op'ning day.

Our God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
be thou our guard while troubles last,
and our eternal home.

The Preparation

Minister Blessed are the peacemakers:
they shall be called children of God.
We meet in the name of Christ and share his peace.

All The peace of the Lord be always with you,
And also with you.

The minister introduces the service.

Minister We worship God,
who is good and just and true.
He created and sustains the world;
and loves us, though we have failed him.

We remember
all who have given their lives in the struggle for justice and peace, all who suffer in war and conflict,
and all who live in terror.

We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith
for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may live together in freedom, justice and peace.

All Amen.

The Confession and Absolution

Minister Let us confess to God
the sins and shortcomings of the world;
its pride, its selfishness, its greed;
its evil divisions and hatreds.
Let us confess our share in what is wrong,
and our failure to seek and establish that peace
which God wills for his children.

We keep a time of silence.

Minister Lord God our Father, maker of all:
we praise you for your great work creating the world.
Give us the skill to build a society where all may thrive,
and forgive us when we use your gifts poorly.
Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

Minister Lord Jesus Christ,
Son of the living God,
Prince of Peace:
as we thank you for your life among us,
forgive us when we fail to live together as one family.
Help us to dwell together in love and peace,
seeking one another's welfare,
bearing one another's burdens,
and sharing one another's joys.
Christ, have mercy.

All Christ, have mercy.

Minister Holy Spirit,
Lord of grace,
fulfiller of humanity:
give us strength to face the future,
and wisdom to learn from the past as we remember those who have given their lives in the service of justice and peace.
Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

Minister The almighty and merciful Lord
grant us pardon and forgiveness of all our sins,
time for amendment of life,
and the grace and strength of the Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

The Collect

Minister God, our refuge and strength, bring near the day when wars shall cease
and poverty and pain shall end, that earth may know the peace of heaven
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

We sit.

The Word of God

The First Reading: Isaiah 2. 2 - 5

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

In days to come
the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills;
all the nations shall stream to it.

Many peoples shall come and say,
'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord,
to the house of the God of Jacob;
that he may teach us his ways
and that we may walk in his paths.'

For out of Zion shall go forth instruction,
and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.
He shall judge between the nations,
and shall arbitrate for many peoples;
they shall beat their swords into ploughshares,
and their spears into pruning-hooks;
nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war any more.

O house of Jacob,
come, let us walk
in the light of the Lord!

Reader This is the word of the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

The Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 4. 13 - 18

A reading from the First Letter to the Thessalonians.

But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord for ever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Reader This is the word of the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

The Sermon

The Hymn

We stand and turn to face the war memorials as we sing:

Melita

Eternal Father, strong to save,
whose arm doth bind the restless wave,
who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep its own appointed limits keep:
O hear us when we cry to thee
for those in peril on the sea.

O Saviour, whose almighty word
the winds and waves submissive heard,
who walkedst on the foaming deep,
and calm, amid its rage, didst sleep:
O hear us when we cry to thee
for those in peril on the sea.

O sacred Spirit, who didst brood upon the waters dark and rude,
who bid their angry tumult cease,
and give, for wild confession, peace:
O hear us when we cry to thee
for those in peril on the sea.

O Trinity of love and pow'r,
our comrade's shield in danger's hour.
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
protect them whereso'er they go,
and ever let there rise to thee
glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

The Act of Remembrance

Minister We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow
those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

Individuals may be remembered.

Minister They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
we will remember them.

All We will remember them.

The Last Post is sounded.

We keep silence.

The Reveille is sounded.

Wreaths are laid.

Minister When you go home tell them of us and say:
'For your tomorrow, we gave our today.'

Minister Ever-living God
we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence;
may that same peace
calm our fears,
bring justice to all peoples
and establish harmony among the nations,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Hymn

We remain standing and turn to face the front of church as we sing:

Blaenwern

By a monument of marble,
or a simple wooden cross,
here we gather to remember sacrifice and tragic loss.
Blood-red poppy petals flutter,
each a symbol for a life,
drifting in a crimson curtain,
shadow of our constant strife.

Solemn silence now surrounds us
as we stand in memory.
Why must factions stir up conflict?
This eternal mystery
troubles hearts and stirs the conscience,
urges us to think again;
face the curse of confrontation,
yet reduce this searing pain.

For the sound of war still thunders through our planet, on this day.
Every hour new victims suffer,
even as we meet to pray.
God, we need your help and guidance
in our constant search for peace.
Move us on to new solutions
as we pray that wars may cease.

The Prayers of Intercession

We sit or kneel.

Intercessor May God give peace,
All God give peace.

Intercessor O God of truth and justice,
we hold before you those whose memory we cherish,
and those whose names we will never know.
Help us to lift our eyes above the torment of this broken world,
and grant us the grace to pray for those who wish us harm.
As we honour the past,
may we put our faith in your future;
for you are the source of life and hope,
now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Minister Trusting in the compassion of God,
as our Saviour taught us, so we pray:

All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

We stand.

The Act of Commitment

Minister Let us pledge ourselves anew to the service of God and our fellow men and women:
that we may help, encourage, and comfort others,
and support those working for the relief of the needy
and for the peace and welfare of the nations.

All Lord God our Father,
we pledge ourselves
to serve you and all of humanity,
in the cause of peace,
for the relief of want and suffering,
and for the praise of your name.
Guide us by your Spirit;
give us wisdom;
give us courage;
give us hope;
and keep us faithful
now and always.
Amen.

The Closing Hymn

We remain standing and we sing:

Dambusters March

God is our strength and refuge,
our present help in trouble,
and we therefore will not fear,
though the earth should change!
Though mountains shake and tremble,
though swirling floods are raging,
God the Lord of hosts is with us evermore!

There is a flowing river
within God's holy city;
God is in the midst of her-
she shall not be moved!
God's help is swiftly given,
thrones vanish at his presence-
God the Lord of hosts is with us evermore!

Come, see the works of our maker,
learn of his deeds all-powerful:
wars will cease across the world
when he shatters the spear!
Be still and know your creator,
uplift him in the nations-
God the Lord of hosts is with us evermore!

The Blessing

Minister Go forth into the world in peace;
be of good courage;
hold fast that which is good;
render to no one evil for evil;
strengthen the faint-hearted;
support the weak;
help the afflicted;
honour everyone;
love and serve the Lord,
rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among us and remain with us always.

All Amen.

We remain standing and we sing.

God save our gracious King!
Long live our noble King!
God save the King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

Coffee and tea are served after the service please move to the hall through the door at the back of the church.

Please be mindful of those who prefer to keep their distance from others at the moment.
